TRIED TO SWINDLE MR. WISE -Ex-Congressman George D. Wise had an interesting experience at Murphy's Hotel, in Richmond yesterdey. During Monday afternoon a card was left at the law office of Wise & Wise, bearing the name of "S. M. Jenkins, M. D." Captain Wise was requested to meet Dr. Jenkins at Murphy's, which he did at 2:30 o'clock. Dr. Jenkins was found there. He mentioned several promi-nent Washington lawyers, who, he said, had recommended him to Captain Wise, and, after ordering drinks, he confided to the ex-congressman that his wife was a member of the Roy family in Richmond, and that she had an incounty. In order to recover, it was necessary to upset a will, and he wanted to retain the services of Captain Wise. The captain soon began to grow Suspi-cious, and asked several embarrassing of the commissioners in the suit of the Citi-zens' National Bank against Joseph (awood and als, has given the bond required by the be downed, and finally offered the lawver a retainer of $250. He drew a ington, and suggested that Captain Wise give him the change in currency. Captain Wise declined, and gave a hint to the hotel clerk as he went out. Yes-terday morning Dr. Jenkins called on Dr. James P. Roy, and told him more about the Roy family than Dr. Roy knew himself. He tried to borrow money from Dr. Roy, and tried again to get him to indorse a check, but failed. He also tried to get a guest at Murphy's to endorse a check, and he called to pay his respects to Dr. Hoge. He was arrested vesterday evening, and will have a hearing to-day.
